Anyone for Gin 11.5

*All with an individual bottle of Fentiman's Tonics or Sparkmouth Cucumber & Mint

Beefeater · England

1 distillery, 8 stills, 9 botanicals, 3 expert distillers = 1 bold taste of a real London dry gin in a double serve.

Ungava Gin · NW Territories, Canada

The unique yellow colour comes from a mix of Arctic sourced botanicals including cloudberry, Labrador tea, and rose hip. Smooth with a hit of spice at 43% proof.

Aviation American Gin · Portland, USA

"I've tried every gin on the planet and Aviation is, hands down, the best. Also, I don't recommend trying every gin on the planet. Stick with this one."— Ryan Reynolds, Owner, Aviation American Gin

Hendricks · Scotland

Cucumber & rose forward gin. Served best with fresh cucumber or elderflower. Brings out the flavour already in this stylish classic

The Botanist Islay Dry Gin · Scotland

A citrus forward gin with a burst from the 22 local botanicals all hand forged from the Isle of Islay, famous for its peaty scotch whiskies. Great neat...!

Sheringham Seaside Gin · Sooke, BC, Canada

Citrus, floral & notes of the sea make this Gin refreshing as a seaside stroll. B.C. organics, natural botanicals & hand-harvested local winged kelp

Hayman's Sloe Gin · England

This is a fruit forward gin liqueur, sloe berries are steeped in gin for months and natural sugars added. Perfect aperitif or with a fruity cocktail.

Boomsma Young Genever Jonge · Netherlands

This gin is lightly sweet at first, with the malty flavor coming through at finish. Vodka drinkers, this could be the bridge to take you to gin town!
